

COTTON MARKET

(Associated Press)

New York, Feb. 13—Cotton futures opened steady. March 33-00; May 33-18; July 31-70; October 27-86; December 27-50.

ALBANY-DECATUR DAILY

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS AND UPBUILDING OF ALBANY-DECATUR, ALABAMA

VOLUME XI

ALBANY, ALABAMA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1924

NUMBER 298

WEATHER

(Associated Press)

Washington, Feb. 13—Alabama: Fair tonight and Thursday. Somewhat warmer tonight and Thursday.

VANDERLIP TO DISCUSS MARION PAPER SALE SHOALS LEGISLATION MOVED UP BY THE HOUSE

DANCER ROBBED OF FORTUNE IN JEWELS

Gems Valued at About $150,000 Taken by Highwaymen
$2,000 IN CASH ALSO IS TAKEN

Three Bandits Get Loot From Actress as She Entered Home

(Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Feb. 13—Gilda Gray, Ziegfeld follies dancer, was robbed last night by three men of jewelry valued at $150,000 and $2,000 in cash, as she entered an apartment building where she lived with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Michaelak, she reported to the police.

Miss Gray married recently to Gailard T. Boag, wealthy New York cabaret owner, had just left the theater and had been driven home by her chauffeur, Joseph Connelly, who witnessed the robbery.

All of the jewelry was in a small handbag, she reported.

Before he left for New York yesterday, her husband warned her against carrying so much jewelry with her, she said. Part of the articles she listed as taken included an engagement ring, wedding ring and gifts from her husband. A valuable mink coat she was wearing was left by the robbers.

While one of the robbers threatened her with a revolver, another searched her and another covered Theodore Hill, an elevator man, with a pistol, according to police. They desisted after they found the handbag, she said.

Connelly, who said he could identify two of the robbers, accompanied a squad of detectives who made a search of restaurants and cabarets for possible suspects after the robbery.

Articles she listed as stolen included a pin containing 108 diamonds, a diamond and sapphire bracelet, $7,000.

All in Readiness for School Show

Albany school students will present "Miss Cherry Blossom" under the direction of Mrs. Joe Petey and Miss Gladys Bernardi at the Masonic theater February 14. The play will begin promptly at 8:15 o'clock p. m. Two strong choruses are announced, one a Geisha chorus and the other an American chorus.

The stage setting promised is to be one of unusual beauty, there will be hundreds of chrysanthemums and dozens of Japanese lanterns in addition to the electric lights.

The numerous costumes, fifty in number, are said to be very beautiful are now in readiness.

In addition to the play, one or more special numbers will be given between acts by Hunter Spain and Louis Engert, members of the Powell-Spain company, which company will put on the American Legion Minstrel, February 16, at the Princess theater.

"Miss Cherry Blossom" will be given under the auspices of the Albany public schools Parent-Teacher Association, which organization sponsored "The Hoochie" as put on by Miss Gladys Bernardi, January 19.

West and South Answer an Ad in Daily's Columns

The Albany-Decatur Daily, Albany, Ala. Gentlemen:

Please get that ham and sausage ad out of your paper as quick as possible, or I won't have meat left to make a crop on.

I have shipped meat "mentioning ad in Albany-Decatur Daily" to Denver, Col., Palm Beach, Fla., St. Louis, Mo., and Memphis, Tenn., and all over Alabama.

John R. Witt

EARLIER ACTION ON FORD OFFER NOW INDICATED

(Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—Republican House leaders are willing to have the House take up the Muscle Shoals legislation immediately after the vote on the tax bill. Until today the tentative program called for consideration of the Johnson immigration bill before the McKenzie Muscle Shoals measure.

Representative Longworth, the republican leader, who, with Chairman Snell, of the rules committee, after conferring with President Coolidge last Saturday, predicted that immigration would be given priority over Muscle Shoals, said he is now of the belief it might be wise to revise this schedule.

PROBE ASKED BY TWO SECRETARIES

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—Congress was asked today by Secretaries Worth and Wallace to investigate the right of the Northern Pacific railroad company to acquire approximately 3,000,000 acres of government land in Idaho, Montana and Washington, under the terms of old land grants.

The secretaries asked that a joint resolution be considered by congress withholding the issuance of any further land patents to the Northern Pacific company until there has been a full and complete inquiry.

Muddy Highways Hurt Health Work

Owing to continued bad roads in Morgan County, it was with fear and trembling that county health officer, Dr. H. C. McRee and the county health nurse, Miss Ella Dale, reached Johnson Chapel school four miles out of Danville this week.

One automobile was disabled in the attempt. The machine used in its place had to be pulled out with a mule team later in the day. Dr. McRee had phoned ahead for a horse drawn conveyance, fearing auto trouble, but the stock was off in the owner's pasture, so he decided to forge ahead in his car.

Dr. McRee stated he was due to visit the Ryan Cross roads school next, but he would have to defer the visit until the roads are better.

Ground Broken by Morgan Farmers

Active work on the farms of this section is now in progress, with the plows of the farm people breaking the soil on Wednesday along many of the pike roads leading into the Twin Cities. Down on Knight's Island every plow available is being pressed into service, stated John W. Knight this morning.

William E. Stead stated that in the Trinity neighborhood and along the Courtland pike the plows were busy with the advent of warm pleasant weather. Captain Richard A. Burleson said that in the Hartsville section of the county the farmers were very active this week.

J. W. Clepton stated that at Courtland the farmers were buying much fertilizer and that near Hillsboro considerable interest is being manifested in dairying.

Balcony Built by Rahm Clothing Co.

A balcony is now in course of erection in the store of the Rahm Clothing company, made necessary by the increase in the business. Mr. Rahm stated today that despite the talk of hard times his firm had done much more business during the past year than usual.

LAWRENCE COUNTY ROAD TO BE BUILT

Agreement Reached to Construct the Pike Immediately
$50,000 VOTED TO PAY FOR WORK

Delegation Back From Attending Hearing of Commission

Work will begin at once on the Courtland-Moulton pike, according to an agreement reached in Montgomery Tuesday afternoon, stated Judge N. P. Thomas, of Tusculum, this morning while here on his way home from the state capital.

Judge Thomas stated the state highway commissioners voted $50,000 for the new road with the understanding that people of Lawrence County are to contribute a similar amount to the project.

Among those to appear at Montgomery before the commission were: Charles Sherrod and A. F. Rebman of Courtland, J. R. Armstrong of Town Creek and Judge N. P. Thomas of Tusculum.

Messrs. Sherrod and Rebman have been active in the agitation which led to the decision of the people of Lawrence county to build the road and they, as well as Judge Thomas, made addresses to the commission.

Judge Thomas stated the road was about 14 miles in length, and that a modern fully up-to-date pike would be built. He said he understood the "crown" or hard surface part of the pike was to be about 12 feet wide according to present plans.

CASING PLACED

The casing for English oil well No. 1 has been placed near the well and workmen will begin to case off the 3,000 feet depth of the well on Thursday, stated J. F. Clark, a director of the Albany-Decatur Gas and Oil well.

MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT

The committee meeting of the leaders of Protestant Christian council to be held for the purpose of nominating officers of the organization will convene Friday night at the residence of T. M. Dix in Decatur. The meeting as previously announced was postponed.

COOLIDGE PROMISES THAT OIL CASES WILL BE PROSECUTED

(Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 13—President Coolidge speaking here last night before the national republican club, promised immediate and unshrinking prosecution of the oil land lease cases, appealed for national and bi-partisan support for the Mellon tax bill, called for assistance for agriculture from all resources of the country, and defended the sale of arms to Mexico.

The chief executive also reiterated his opposition to soldier bonus legislation, declared there was some promise of a European settlement, and asserted the United States stood ready to join with other nations in further limiting armament whenever there appears to be reasonable prospect of agreement.

The address, which was made at the Lincoln birthday dinner of the club, was the first Mr. Coolidge has made outside of Washington since he became president. In many respects it was an elaboration of his message to congress.

The president devoted much attention to taxation and agriculture, but in concluding turned to the sensation of the present time the oil land lease investigation.

"Lately there have been most startling revelations concerning the leasing of government oil lands," he said, "at the revelation of greed making its subtle approaches to public officers, or the prostitution of high calice to private profit, we are filled with scorn and indignation. We have a deep sense of humiliation at such gross betrayal of trust, we lament the undermining of public confidence in official integrity. But we can not rest with righteous wrath; still less can we permit ourselves to give way to cynicism.

"We propose to follow the clear, open path of justice. There will be immediate, adequate, unshrinking prosecution, criminal and civil, to punish the guilty and to protect every national interest. In this effort there will be no politics, no partisanship. It will be speedy, it will be just, I am a republican, but I can not on that account shield anyone because he is a republican. I am a republican, but I can not on that account prosecute any one because he is a democrat.

"I want no hue and cry, no mingling of innocent and guilty in unthinking condemnation, no confusion of mere question of law which questions of fraud and corruption. It is at such a time that the qualities of our citizenry is tested, unrelenting toward evil, fairminded and intent upon the requirements of due process, the shield of the innocent and the safeguard of society itself. I ask the support of our people as chief magistrate intent on the enforcement of our laws without fear or favor, no matter who is hurt or what the consequence."

ATHLETIC FIELD AND PARK SURE

ENTERPRISE BEGUN BY MALONE TODAY

Leading Business Man Constructing New Project Here

BUYS 21 ACRES ON MOULTON STREET

Modern Swimming Pool Will Be Built Also on the Property

Announcement was made Wednesday by B. L. Malone, prominent local business man, of the purchase of 21 acres on West Moulton street, which will be converted into an immense athletic field and park for outdoor amusements.

Work of clearing the large tract of land, which is just west of the Church Hill compress and Home Oil mill, already is underway and a big crew of men, under the personal direction of Mr. Malone, was engaged Wednesday morning in clearing off all underbrush in that part of the tract which will be used for the athletic field.

The tract begins at the property line of the oil mill and the compress and runs northward approximately 1,300 feet. It is bounded on the west by the alley just east of Fourth avenue and on the south by Moulton street. It has a frontage of 832 feet on Moulton street.

Plans For Future
Mr. Malone said all of his plans for future development of the enterprise were not completed yet. It is his intention, however to immediately construct, in addition to the athletic field a modern swimming pool. Dry Creek, which runs through the property, will be improved also, the banks sodded and an area provided for use of picnickers.

Mr. Malone stated that contracts already have been made for 12,000 yards of dirt, which will be used to aid in the leveling process for the athletic field. Dirt also will be cut from the higher places in the field and when work is finished, it was declared the park would have one of the very best playing fields in the south.

Can Handle Big Games

"When we have finished up our work on the athletic field," Mr. Malone said, "we hope to be able to handle all kinds of football and baseball games, from the biggest to the smallest. Our stands probably at this time will be wooden but it is our hope that the future growth of our community will necessitate the erection of concrete stands and bleachers. We will have ample seating capacity to handle crowds of almost any size and consideration will be given, in laying out the field, to demands which may come in the future for temporary stands for the larger events.

"We expect to give no odds to anybody, on the field itself. The playing field will be as good as the best."

Swimming Pool

Mr. Malone recently has visited several of the larger Southern cities, studying designs for modern swimming pools. It is his intention to construct on the Moulton street property a pool, modern, safe and sanitary in every respect. It will be furnished with water by the city main, and will be given other treatment to provide all health securities. The "violet ray" treatment, given the water in some of the more expensive pools in the larger cities, is under consideration by Mr. Malone and may be adopted for his pool.

The pool probably will be located on the eastern side of the large grove which Dry Creek skirts.

Handsome Entrance
Mr. Malone stated that he planned

Chicago Bankers Called in Oil Land Inquiry.

Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago, and Frank O. Wetmore, president of the First National Bank of Chicago, have been summoned as witnesses in the Senate's investigation into the scandal surrounding the oil land leases.

to fence in the property at once. A handsome entrance will be built near the southwestern entrance of the park. It will be of brick and will include space for two or more store buildings and the entrance, itself, will be in the form of an attractive arch.

Concrete walks will be constructed about the grounds and several concrete bridges will be built across Dry Creek.

It was estimated by Mr. Malone that about 60 days would be necessary to complete the building program on the athletic field and the swimming pool will be ready before summer arrives. "As to the other features of the park, I cannot just yet make a definite statement," Mr. Malone explained. "I am not yet decided just how the park will be operated, whether it will be leased or not. Of course, if it is leased, it is possible that the lessor may desire some changes made in the original plans. The construction of the park, itself, the entrance, the athletic field, the swimming pool and the picnic grounds are the improvements I will make at first. After that, well, it depends largely on what the future holds in store for our section of the state."

Mr. Malone announced also the park will include one or more basketball courts, several tennis courts and courts for croquet.

RELATIONS SEVERED WITH HONDURAS

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—Diplomatic relations between the United States and the government of Honduras have been severed by the state department.

The step was taken because of the failure of three political factions in Honduras to reach an agreement under which constitutional government can be restored in peaceful manner.

VANDERLIP ASKED TO EXPLAIN REFERENCE

Senate Calls on Well Known Financier to Give Testimony

OIL LEASE PROBE IS REACHING OUT

State Department Is Requested to Air Foreign Leases

(Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—Inquiry into charges of fraudulent land operations in Texas was ordered today by the senate in adopting a resolution offered by Senator Heflin, democrat, of Alabama.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—Subpoena for Frank A. Vanderlip to appear before the senate oil committee was issued today by Chairman Lammont.

"He will be asked about reference he made at Oasing, New York, last night to the oil inquiry and to the source of funds used last year to purchase a certain Marion newspaper."

In his address Vanderlip said: "A certain Marion newspaper sold for $550,000 when it was well known to everyone that it was not worth half that sum. Two young men of no financial standing purchased it. Everybody in Washington, including the newspaper correspondents, knew this, but no one wants to look under the edge of a shroud."

"Where did the money come from? Where did it go? These are matters of public interest. The last administration stands challenged. We cannot wait for congress or the courts. Especially when we remember that Mr. Daugherty is attorney general."

NEW YORK, Feb. 13—Frank A. Vanderlip, when informed today he had been summoned before the senate oil committee, said "I will be glad to tell what I know about the circumstances surrounding the sale of the late President Harding's newspaper."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—A prediction that public opinion will force President Coolidge to remove every official connected with the oil revenue leases was made today by Senator Robinson, Arkansas, the democratic leader, in reply to the president's refusal to accept the senate's advice and immediately ask for the resignation of Secretary Denby.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—The senate today adopted a resolution of Senator Dill, democrat, Washington, calling upon the state department for copies of all diplomatic correspondence in connection with the senate ratification of the Colombian treaty, which was urged by former Secretary Fall.

A second resolution by Senator Dill calling for similar reports from the state department as to communication it may have concerning oil concessions or leases in nine other countries also was adopted.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—President Coolidge apparently is preparing to withdraw from the senate the nomination of Silas H. Strawn, of Illinois, special government counsel in the oil lease cases. It is possible the name of Atlas Pomeroy, Mr. Strawn's colleague, also will be withdrawn.

James Garfield, of Ohio, who was secretary of the interior under Roosevelt, may be chosen as counsel in place of Strawn.

President Coolidge's New York speech, in which he referred to the

(Continued on Page 2)

The Albany-Decatur Daily

418 Second Ave., Albany, Ala.

Published every afternoon, except Sunday, in Albany, Ala.
By the

TENNESSEE VALLEY PRINTING COMPANY, INC.

Entered as second-class matter February 26, 1912, at the postoffice at Albany, Ala., July 1, 1917, under Act of March 3, 1879.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for re-publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published therein.

All rights of re-publication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

W. R. SHELTON Editor
B. C. SHELTON Business Manager
B. M. BLOODWORTH Associate Editor

Telephone: Local 46. Long Distance: 9909

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

By carrier, daily per week	.15
By mail, daily, one month	.60
By mail, daily, three months	1.50
By mail, daily, six months	2.75
By mail, daily, one year	4.50

JUDGE ALMON CLAIMS THE SHOALS PROJECT FOR THE ENTIRE NATION

As Admiral Schley declared in connection with America's great naval victory at Santiago during the Spanish-American war: "There is honor enough for all," so when the American people are totally victorious at Muscle Shoals with Henry Ford as the lessee, it can be said: "All the American people will benefit." It is not necessary for any section or any individual to feel selfish as to the Shoals, if they are developed to the fullest extent. There will be value enough from the Shoals for all to share. Both the friends and the enemies of the Ford bid would make a mistake if they should attempt to make the disposition of the great project "a local issue."

The Shoals should not be spoken of as benefiting just Alabama, or even the whole southeastern section of the South. They should be thought of as one of the greatest, most valuable assets this entire nation can have. At least this is the position taken by such leaders as Judge Edward B. Almon, congressman from the Eighth district, and from the applause he received in the House of Representatives when he declared that the Shoals was not a local but a national issue in a recent speech. A large majority of the House of Representatives feel the same. That part of Judge Almon's speech on the "Offer of Henry Ford for Muscle Shoals" as just from the Congressional Press referring to the Shoals project as a national belonging, is as follows:

"It (the Shoals project) belongs to the people of the nation. When completed, it will be one of the greatest achievements of the American people. I do not expect the Panama Canal, and I do not mean that as any criticism of the Panama Canal, for I consider it one of the really big things which the American people have done. The water power dam at Muscle Shoals, known as the Wilson Dam, will be completed in about 18 months from now and will be the largest dam in the world, containing more cubic yards of material than any dam which has ever been constructed in any country. If a wise disposition of Muscle Shoals is made by Congress, and it is developed and utilized as Congress intended that it should be when it was authorized, it will be a real blessing to the American people—nation-wide in its scope and influence. (Applause.) We have been discussing Muscle Shoals and what we would do with it ever since the World war ended. The American people are now demanding action on our part. It is of such vital importance that President Coolidge in his recent message to Congress called special attention to it and urged that it should be sold and operated by private capital for the manufacture of fertilizer for the benefit of agriculture, with the right to re-take it for war purposes in the event of war. It is very evident that the great masses of the American people are in favor of acceptance by Congress of the offer made by Henry Ford, and I believe that this Congress at a very early date will respond to the sentiment of the American people by accepting the Ford offer. (Applause.)"

Since Judge Almon believes with all his heart that the Shoals project belongs to the entire nation, it is not strange that he is so sure of the acceptance of the offer to develop it as made by the foremost man of his time, in practical knowledge of such great enterprises, and by one whose patriotism and love for humanity has never been successfully questioned.

DR. WEIDFELDT'S BLUNDER MAY YET BE TURNED TO GOOD ADVANTAGE

Reports show that the German government is having its ambassador at Washington shoulder the blame for the unfortunate flag incident at the time former President Wilson lay dead in Washington. It is strongly rumored that Dr. Weidfeldt, the ambassador, will be recalled as the result of his failure to fly his flag at half mast promptly.

It appears that the Berlin office and German embassy acted with characteristic stupidity. It is said that Dr. Weidfeldt some time before the death of Mr. Wilson wired Berlin concerning the manner in which the death of Mr. Wilson should be observed, and that the German foreign office replied that it regarded Woodrow Wilson as a private citizen, but gave the ambassador at Washington leave to do as he thought best.

It so turned out that what Dr. Weidfeldt considered best was about the worst possible thing to do, and he wisely changed his mind, but not until a lot of harm was done.

If Dr. Weidfeldt has used only ordinary common sense he would have followed the example of the other foreign ambassadors and lowered his flag since obviously no principle was involved and his own government had not claimed there was.

Taking literally what the Berlin message seemed to say, namely, that as Mr. Wilson was regarded only as a private citizen no official notice should be taken of his death, Dr. Weidfeldt got into the same kind of trouble that all other persons do who insist on the "letter" of the law. The ambassador's mind worked logically but very unwisely.

The incident will be forgotten and pass completely out of circulation. The memory of Mr. Wilson is not hurt by it, but on the other hand his international prestige is heightened by the Weidfeldt blunder.

Always, among a large class of people, the unfortunate episode will serve to emphasize the power Wilson was in the effort which defeated the Germans on the field of battle.

Just at this time when many well meaning people in America are trying to get public sentiment to where large financial aid can be given to German children—a movement that should succeed—the action of Dr. Weidfeldt may prove a calamity to many needy and worthy people in the Fatherland. But on the other hand, if the experience could in some way teach the Germans and their leaders something better than they seem to know at present about proper human relations, it may be worth all and more than it will cost.

GERMANY OUT OF DEBT

It is a curious financial situation that has developed in Germany. It is rather hard to understand, in a practical way, just what it means.

The German government has repudiated its public debt. That is to say, German war bonds and other evidences of public indebtedness are made worthless. That had been virtually accomplished through the deterioration in value of the currency in which the bonds were payable, but it has been made official by act of the German government.

Private German indebtedness, too, is virtually wiped out by worthless money, though private bonds and mortgages, or secured debts, are declared to have 10 per cent of their former gold value. The war debt swept out of existence is said to have been, at its height, $40,000,000,000. Add the private debts eliminated, and Germany has repudiated indebtedness amounting to nearly as much as its whole estimated national wealth.

But what has been lost? Countless private fortunes invested in war bonds, mortgages, etc. That is, money has been lost. And credit, based on money, has been destroyed. But money, unless it is solid gold, is not real wealth—only evidence of wealth.

Suppose half a dozen men, all of whom owed money to each other which they could not pay, were to meet, talk things over, and agree to cancel their mutual indebtedness. Would these men as a group be really worse off after cancelling than before? They would have left their own working power and their physical property, and they would all be out of debt. That roughly represents the present situation of Germany, except that Germany still has its reparation debt to pay to the allies. —Tuscaloosa News.

One good smooth way to dispose of opponents is to allow them to howl themselves into incoherent desuetude.

Oil is vanity and vexation of spirit saith the leaders of the G. C. P.

LAW ENFORCEMENT IN CHICAGO REALITY*Mayor Dever Notifies Citizens Storm Will Not "Blow Over"2,300 PLACES ARE CLOSED BY ORDER"Relentless Warfare" on Prohi Violators Cleans Up City

(Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Feb. 13—Declaring that "law enforcement" is a reality in Chicago, Mayor William E. Dever, whose campaign against illicit liquor has driven 23 breweries and more than 6,000 soft drink parlors out of business during the past four months, served notice today on bootleggers and beer runners that "this storm is not going to blow over."

"The traffic in beer and booze has been halted in Chicago and it will not be resumed during my administration," the mayor said, as he signed orders which increased to 2,300 the number of establishments closed through license revocation since September 15, last.

Immediately upon assuming office for a four year term last April, the mayor began an informal personal inquiry into the traffic in illegal beverages. His relentless warfare against high alcoholic contents has touched every department of the municipal government. The police department has been reorganized from top to bottom. Veteran district commanders have been removed from the service and more than 700 subordinate officers have been transferred to new stations.

An enforcement program has been instituted in every police precinct as a fleet of 41 automobiles, manned by armed patrolmen, put into use.

NURSES MEETING

The Alabama annual convention of trained nurses is meeting in Birmingham.

ham for a three days session.

A number of the nurses from the Miss Ella Dale of the Morgan County convention, one of the number being

Next Spring—

With over 200,000 orders for Ford Cars and Trucks already placed for delivery during the next few months, we are facing a record-breaking spring demand.

Each successive month this winter has witnessed a growth in sales far surpassing that of any previous winter season. This increase will be even greater during the spring months, always the heaviest buying period.

These facts suggest that you place your order early to avoid disappointment in delivery at the time desired.

Ford Motor Company
Detroit, Michigan

It is not necessary to pay cash for your car in order to have your name placed on the preferred delivery list. You can make a small payment down, or you can buy, if you wish, under the convenient terms of the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

See the Nearest Authorized Ford Dealer*Such popularity must be deserved

POPULARITY isn't luck—there is no royal road to the spotlight. Popularity, today, means "delivering the goods!" Last year broke all records for the number of Chesterfields smoked. Why? Because Chesterfields make good! There are loads of ordinary cigarettes—smokers want something better!

Better quality—proved by better taste—that's why men are turning by thousands from other cigarettes to Chesterfield.

Chesterfield
CIGARETTES*They Satisfy—millions!*

DAILY MAGAZINE PAGE FOR EVERYBODY

MY HUSBAND'S LOVE

Adele Garrison's New Phase of Revelations of a Wife

Lowering Skies Portended Danger That Night.

IN my haste to get to the store before closing time I lightly parried Jim's warning.

"I'm only going to Bridgehampton now, Jim," I said as the motor began to chug, "and the weather won't have time to get very bad before I get back."

"No, I guess you'll have time to get to Bridgehampton," he assented, but the remembrance of his worried face made me scan the sky carefully as I drove along the winding country road toward the lovely old village.

The result of my scrutiny was not reassuring. There was no faint gleam of the sunset which usually makes a glow of the sky at the eastern end of Long Island. Instead a mist too heavy and dark even for the brush of a cloud to depict shrouded the horizon and appeared to be advancing toward me. I shivered slightly, for I knew only too well what that sort of sky portended in driving conditions, and put on the gas limit until I reached the main street of the village and the substantial structure housing the store known to all the country around for three generations as Chichester's.

What are you going to do, Mrs. Graham, start an orphan asylum? The genial proprietor, who himself waited on me, asked when I had completed my purchases.

"Not exactly," I returned, "and yet," with a calculated display of candor, "I am purchasing for orphans. The children of my husband's sister are with us for a while. Both their parents were killed in an automobile accident only a few days ago."

"You don't say!" The man's eyes were wide with sympathy, but with a trifle embarrassed. "That's terrible. You sure beg your pardon, Mrs. Graham, didn't mean—"

"Of course not," I returned. "It's perfectly all right. And I think I have everything now." I checked up quickly from the list in my hand.

"Here, Jim, hurry!" He called a clerk from the rear of the store, and the two men tied up my bundles quickly.

"Take these out to Mrs. Graham's car, Jim," the proprietor directed, and then, as he walked with me to the door, he reiterated Jim's prophecy.

"Looks like a bad night. Lucky you haven't far to go."

I mentally commented that it was lucky he didn't know how far I had to go, or he would have had doubts as to my sanity, but aloud I only assented. "Yes, isn't it?" and climbing back into the car, raced back home, reaching the farm just in time to deliver my bundles into Mamie's waiting hands and get the car inside the barn before the rain began.

Lillian greeted me worriedly when I reached the door.

"Fears for the Drive."

"Whatever is to be done?" she asked. "You can't take that drive at night in this rain."

"Can't I?" I inquired. "Since when have you ever indexed me as to the contents of a sugar-bowl or a salt shaker?"

"Oh! don't talk nonsense," she snapped. "That drive to Riverhead is the loneliest thing."

"That's an asset," I declared decidely, "a great deal better than traffic on a rainy night. Be sensible, sweet child, and listen to me. It isn't cold, the top and curtains of the car make it absolutely waterproof."

"Except for you," she interrupted. "You know you never will drive with that left front curtain on."

"I'll have a sure-fire fix," I returned, "and that little electric windshield cleaner keeps the glass clear as—"

"Glass," she supplemented mischievously. "Never say I'm not the handy housewife."

"You're the original Roget," I assured her, and turned quickly at a knock upon the door. Lillian opened it to reveal Harriet Braithwaite, pale and anxious.

"Will you dare to drive a night like this?" she asked.

Lillian drew forward a seat for her, and then taking me by the hand led me forward with the burlesque simulation of a circus Barker exhibiting a freak.

"Let me introduce to you the demon driver of these here parts, Madame Margherita," she intoned.

"What Barney Oldfield has done, she will do, or break her neck in the attempting," she dropped to a crawl, then finished up briskly. "Do not worry, Mrs. Braithwaite, Madge already has the trip mapped out. All you have to do is to climb into the band wagon."

LOVE'S MESSENGER

HOW dreaming her eyes and how softened her smile as the white wings of the carrier pigeon gleam in the sunlight! In his pink beak he carries the sweetest story ever told—eited in a bit of poem, perhaps, or in the photographic copy of a well-loved face. Not all the sweethearts in the world welcome a messenger so romantic. But whether he be bird or postman or freckled youngster with a telegram clutched in his grimy fist, the effect always is the same—dreaming eyes and softened smile and a warm glow round the heart while Dan Cupid watches from behind his screen and chuckles over the memory of St. Valentine!

There Are Cold Creams to Be Had Giving Smoothness and Beauty

By LUCREZIA BORI

The Famous Spanish Prima Donna

RECENTLY I heard a woman in a mean-looking overcoat, with a faded hat, and a faded dress, standing over the head of a man who was lying on a table, and she was saying to him: "You're the original Roget," I assured her, and turned quickly at a knock upon the door. Lillian opened it to reveal Harriet Braithwaite, pale and anxious.

"Will you dare to drive a night like this?" she asked.

Lillian drew forward a seat for her, and then taking me by the hand led me forward with the burlesque simulation of a circus Barker exhibiting a freak.

"Let me introduce to you the demon driver of these here parts, Madame Margherita," she intoned.

"What Barney Oldfield has done, she will do, or break her neck in the attempting," she dropped to a crawl, then finished up briskly. "Do not worry, Mrs. Braithwaite, Madge already has the trip mapped out. All you have to do is to climb into the band wagon."

"Glass," she supplemented mischievously. "Never say I'm not the handy housewife."

"You're the original Roget," I assured her, and turned quickly at a knock upon the door. Lillian opened it to reveal Harriet Braithwaite, pale and anxious.

"Will you dare to drive a night like this?" she asked.

Lillian drew forward a seat for her, and then taking me by the hand led me forward with the burlesque simulation of a circus Barker exhibiting a freak.

"Let me introduce to you the demon driver of these here parts, Madame Margherita," she intoned.

"What Barney Oldfield has done, she will do, or break her neck in the attempting," she dropped to a crawl, then finished up briskly. "Do not worry, Mrs. Braithwaite, Madge already has the trip mapped out. All you have to do is to climb into the band wagon."

"Glass," she supplemented mischievously. "Never say I'm not the handy housewife."

"You're the original Roget," I assured her, and turned quickly at a knock upon the door. Lillian opened it to reveal Harriet Braithwaite, pale and anxious.

"Will you dare to drive a night like this?" she asked.

Lillian drew forward a seat for her, and then taking me by the hand led me forward with the burlesque simulation of a circus Barker exhibiting a freak.

"Let me introduce to you the demon driver of these here parts, Madame Margherita," she intoned.

"What Barney Oldfield has done, she will do, or break her neck in the attempting," she dropped to a crawl, then finished up briskly. "Do not worry, Mrs. Braithwaite, Madge already has the trip mapped out. All you have to do is to climb into the band wagon."

"Glass," she supplemented mischievously. "Never say I'm not the handy housewife."

One is the dust and soot at over-crowded cities, or of towns where a great deal of manufacturing is done. Another is the dry air of steam-heated apartments and houses. Many of us become accustomed to indoor heat that we don't realize how overheated our rooms become. We prefer to remain indoors lazily basking in the warmth of going out and breathing the fresh, cool air. You must realize how necessary fresh air is to skin beauty. Notice children who spend many hours playing out-of-doors. They invariably have glowing cheeks and sparkling eyes and smooth skins that are the envy of many an older person.

Try to find time for brisk walks in the fresh air. They will improve your health and your general appearance remarkably.

And after the first glow of youth is over, you are very likely to need a skin food to improve the smoothness and general appearance of your skin. It helps fill out wrinkles and hollows.

You should apply it lightly when you go to bed at night, after you have cleansed your skin with a good cold cream. Here is an excellent skin food:

Olive oil, 3 ounces
Lime juice, 1/2 cup
Benzoin, 1/2 ounce

Rub this lightly over your face, taking particular care to apply it at the corners of your eyes and places where wrinkles are most likely to come. If you take a warm bath at night, it is a very good plan to apply the skin food before you get into the tub, as the heat from the water will tend to open your pores so the skin food can soak into them.

Advice to Girls

By Annie Laurie

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am going with a young man who is four years my senior. But he goes away almost every night and I never know where he goes to. I go out with him about once a week. Should I ask for an explanation? Do you think he would tell me if I did? I am not engaged to him. Do you think it would be wrong if I went out with some other young men?

BEWILDERED: The young man owes you no explanation, my dear, since you are not engaged to him. Go out with your other friends, by all means.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a young girl just past my teens. I have been keeping company with a young man two years my senior. One night I was ill and called him on the telephone to explain that I was unable to see him that evening. Then he claimed to have come out to the house later in the evening to bring me a basket of flowers. But I had retired and must have been asleep as I did not hear the bell.

Now he doubts me and thinks I did not tell him the truth.

Now, dear Annie Laurie, how can I convince him that I told him the truth? I think as much of him as I ever did. TRUE BLUE.

TRUTH BLUE: Invite the young man to your home to explain the situation in a simple and sincere manner. He should not doubt you.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a young man, twenty-two years old, and have been going with a girl one year my junior for some time. I have an excellent outlook for the future concerning financial affairs. I am in love with this girl. I have many times resolved to ask her to become my wife, but I just haven't the nerve.

Please tell me how to "pop the question." BACKBONELESS.

BACKBONELESS: It is said that "faint heart never won a fair lady." With this in mind, the task before you should not be difficult. Good luck to you!

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a man of twenty-one. I work every day of the week except on Sunday, and in the evening I spend most of my time studying to fit myself for a profession.

Don't you think it would be all right to spend at least one evening a week at a dance or go out with one of my girl friends?

A friend of mine tells me that I should think of nothing but my work. He says I should not go to dances while I am studying.

S.P.: Your friend is mistaken. If the mind is diverted it can't return the better to thinking. Go to a dance occasionally and forget all about your studies. Then when you return once more to your books, you will find that your mind is clearer and better able to absorb what you read. Besides, there is no reason in the world why you should not have a little fun like every other normal human being.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By JEANNETTE YOUNG NORTON

The Authority on Home Cooking

The Best Ways to Cook a Turkey.

THOUGH the end of the turkey season proper is at hand, it may not come amiss to stress certain points regarding the bird.

The turkey belongs to the family of pheasants, peacocks, bustards, grouse and wild turkeys.

They live on seeds and grains, roost high at night and each cock has his own harem of several wives.

A native of North America, it was introduced in England during the reign of Henry the Eighth and began its career as a holiday dainty in 1545. So delectable for the turkey family tree with its honored ancestry.

The turkey has a vile disposition and is a bully among his own kind. They are put into a warm, dry shed, roomy and open to the south, kept scrupulously clean, and the birds are fed twice a day. Their food consists of grains, ground oats, maize and hot milk. The acquisition of fat whitens the meat and enriches its flavor.

The following recipes show what may be done with the delicious meat of the turkey:

Boiled Turkey.

Prepare the turkey and stuff its crop with sausage meat. Truss it firmly, sewing up the apron well.

full of stuffing. Then wrap the bird in heavy, oiled paper, lay it in the pot and cover it with good stock or water. When the liquor boils, add two scraped carrots, two peeled onions, one white turnip parley, some celery, half a bay leaf and a few savory herbs. Cook the fowl evenly and gently until it is tender, then lift it to a hot dish. Strain the liquor from the pot, season it, thicken it with flour and water smoothly blended, strain it over the bird. Garnish the turkey with carved cut in fancy shapes and serve it with baked potatoes, cranberry sauce, and boiled and creamed onions.

Fricassee Turkey.

Clean the turkey, wash it well, then with a very sharp knife joint it. Remove the largest bones and put it in a stew-pan with enough water or stock to cover it. Add a sliced onion, some celery tops and a red pepper. Cook the turkey evenly until the meat is tender, then lift it to a hot dish. Thicken the gravy and season it to taste, then strain it over the meat and reheat the dish. When it is hot, add a small amount of hot cream. This is a delicious and unusual way to cook the bird. Serve it with mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce and mashed turnips, baked onions and plenty of celery.

Gelatine of Turkey.

Clean and wash a small turkey, then bone it by cutting it straight down the back and removing the bones neatly. Spread the flesh with sausage meat, dust it with pepper and salt, add two thinly sliced, hard-boiled eggs, and sprinkle it with a half cupful of chopped nuts—pecans or pistachios are best. Add three or four thin slices of bacon and a few sliced truffles, if any are at hand. Draw in the legs and wings before stuffing the bird, then roll them firmly and fasten them by covering them with a linen binder. Put these ingredients into a saucepan, cover them with stock and let them stew gently for about two hours. When done, lift them from the dish, tighten the binder then place them under a heavy weight until they are cold. When cold, remove the weight and binder, brush over the meat with a meat glaze, and garnish it with aspic jelly colored red. Serve the turkey sliced with a very sharp knife. This is an especially good dish for a Sunday night supper and may be prepared the day before.

What would you suggest? You give such good advice to other girls we thought you could help us. BEVERLY AND BILLY.

BILLY AND BEVERLY: Yours is much the better plan, my dears. Until you become engaged, you should not confine yourselves to the friendship of one young man.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a girl in my teens and am deeply in love with a young man three years my senior. I am engaged to him. He wants me to marry when I am seventeen or eighteen years of age, but I told him he must wait until I am nineteen.

I would like your advice on this matter. COTTON DOLLY.

COTTON DOLLY: You are extremely young to contemplate so serious a step as marriage, my dear. Do your parents know of your engagement? I suggest that you wait until you are at least nineteen before you marry.

Tomorrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14.

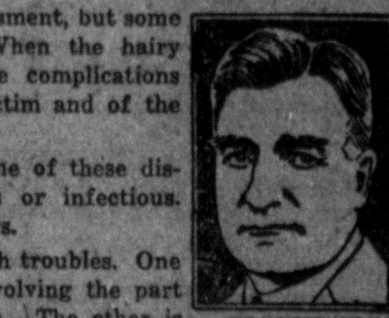

A generally unfavorable state of affairs must be presaged from the ruling lunar and mutual transits. A restless, nervous tendency should be subdued and no attempt made to change, move or travel, as these are under sinister sway. There may be danger of accident, and quarrels and litigation should be avoided. The best advice is to remain very quiet and attend to routine affairs with all caution and conservatism.

Those whose birthday it is have the augury of a troublesome year, which may be aggravated by any attempt at change, removal or travel. It may be wise, therefore, to remain as quiet as possible, shun quarrels and litigation and guard against accidents. A child born on this day should be trained to be very careful and methodical in its movements, since otherwise it may be subject to accident. It should be disciplined also in the matter of impetuosity.

THE black crepe frock shown above is simple of line, but manages to show two very unusual notes.

One is seen in the deep yoke which forms an inset at the top of the blouse and draws up to a rounded neckline.

The other is the trimming which forms the yoke and tiny apron of feet at the front of the frock. Sheer white crepe is the base for the trim going while over this heavy black stitchery traces a feathery design.

DR. COPELAND

YOUR HEALTH

Because of Their Danger Beware of Skin Diseases

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M.D.

United States Senator from New York, Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

ANY skin disease is an embarrassment, but some are positively loathsome. When the hairy parts are involved there are complications which add to the misery of the victim and of the onlooker, too.

The unfortunate thing about some of these diseases is that they are contagious or infectious. They are easily passed on to others.

I desire to tell you about two such troubles. One attacks men almost exclusively, involving the part of the face where the beard grows. The other is found in the scalps of school children.

Both these diseases are forms of ringworms. Of course, ringworm is not confined to the hairy parts. It may be found in the palms of the hands and the soles of the feet. But usually the head, the space under the arm, or some other hair-covered region is the favorite seat of the disease.

Perhaps you will be surprised to learn that the finger-nails or the toe-nails may be reached by this condition. It is a disease of what we call "epithelial tissue"—skin, nails and hair.

Ringworm is what is usually called a "scaly disease." That is, it is caused by a microscopic agent of some sort. There are special types of these agents and each particular form has its particular field of choice. The scaly type will not attack the hairless skin, and it may be said in general that the beard type rarely attacks the scalp.

Germes are just as fussy in their appetites as children are. If a boy can't have candy he won't take bread. So germs have an appetite for certain tissues and won't feed upon any other.

When ringworm attacks the beard it is known popularly as "barber's itch."

It is a disease of childhood, especially of school children. I shall not attempt to discriminate between false and true ringworm. They are probably not identical in origin, but in their symptoms and progress, as well as in their treatment, they are twins. I am saying this for the benefit of my scientific readers who might find fault with me if I did not proclaim my knowledge of the difference.

Yellow crusts gradually increase in extent and depth until they look like honeycombs. The hairs fall out or break off, leaving bald spots, varying in size from a dime to a silver dollar.

The scalp infection may be brought about by germs carried to it by hair brushes and combs. Hats and other articles of dress may convey the infecting agent. It is probable, too, that dogs, cats, horses, cows, birds and other animals may transmit the disease to human beings.

All forms of ringworm are the result of uncleanliness or carelessness. If a barber shops and hairdressers' establishments are kept scrupulously clean and the implements are sterilized, these precautions are making ringworm a very rare disease.

In the treatment of ringworm, no matter whether it is in the form of "barber's itch," favus of the scalp, or ringworm of the body, the methods are simple and satisfactory.

Scrub the parts clean, using for this purpose tincture of green soap. Remove all the crusts and scales. Then paint the involved surface with iodine and let it dry.

Having cleaned and sterilized the skin in this way, paint it over with flexible collodion, commonly known as "new skin." This will cover and protect the sore places.

There are other methods of treatment, but our experience in the New York City schools has caused us to adopt this pretty satisfactory method. Copyright, 1924, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Today's Fashion

By VERA WINSTON

The Trimming Is Worthy of Note on This Black Crepe Frock.

THE black crepe frock shown above is simple of line, but manages to show two very unusual notes.

One is seen in the deep yoke which forms an inset at the top of the blouse and draws up to a rounded neckline.

The other is the trimming which forms the yoke and tiny apron of feet at the front of the frock. Sheer white crepe is the base for the trim going while over this heavy black stitchery traces a feathery design.

Three-Minute Journeys

By Temple Manning

WHERE THE POPES DWELT IN THE FOURTEENTH CENTURY.

NODDING sleepily in the warm French sun lies Avignon, a little city of about 25,000 souls, seldom visited by tourists, never heard of in the news, but the place from which the Christian world was ruled for nearly a century.

Avignon lies on the left bank of the Rhone about one hundred and forty miles south of Lyons. Its chief attraction to-day is the palace of the popes. From 1307 until 1377, the ruler of the Catholic Church lived in Avignon, and after the last pope returned to Rome, a claimant to the position of pope ruled in Avignon until 1409, creating a great schism in the Catholic Church a century before the revolt of Martin Luther.

Rome was at its lowest ebb as a city about the year 1300. Civil wars and invasions had almost completely destroyed the former mistress of the world. When Clement V was made pope he feared to go to Rome because of its turmoil, and a succession of popes ruled from Avignon. The city was bought by them from France, and then they built the huge palace, which still stands. During the exile of the popes from Rome the college of cardinals became almost completely French, and all the popes were Frenchmen. The King of France was continually endeavoring to make the popes subservient to him, and it was this which caused Gregory XII to decide to return to Rome.

The French king objected so strenuously to the pope's departure that he persuaded some of the cardinals to declare it illegal. The city was bought by them from France, and then they built the huge palace, which still stands. During the exile of the popes from Rome the college of cardinals became almost completely French, and all the popes were Frenchmen. The King of France was continually endeavoring to make the popes subservient to him, and it was this which caused Gregory XII to decide to return to Rome.

The French king objected so strenuously to the pope's departure that he persuaded some of the cardinals to declare it illegal. The city was bought by them from France, and then they built the huge palace, which still stands. During the exile of the popes from Rome the college of cardinals became almost completely French, and all the popes were Frenchmen. The King of France was continually endeavoring to make the popes subservient to him, and it was this which caused Gregory XII to decide to return to Rome.

The French king objected so strenuously to the pope's departure that he persuaded some of the cardinals to declare it illegal. The city was bought by them from France, and then they built the huge palace, which still stands. During the exile of the popes from Rome the college of cardinals became almost completely French, and all the popes were Frenchmen. The King of France was continually endeavoring to make the popes subservient to him, and it was this which caused Gregory XII to decide to return to Rome.

The French king objected so strenuously to the pope's departure that he persuaded some of the cardinals to declare it illegal. The city was bought by them from France, and then they built the huge palace, which still stands. During the exile of the popes from Rome the college of cardinals became almost completely French, and all the popes were Frenchmen. The King of France was continually endeavoring to make the popes subservient to him, and it was this which caused Gregory XII to decide to return to Rome.

The French king objected so strenuously to the pope's departure that he persuaded some of the cardinals to declare it illegal. The city was bought by them from France, and then they built the huge palace, which still stands. During the exile of the popes from Rome the college of cardinals became almost completely French, and all the popes were Frenchmen. The King of France was continually endeavoring to make the popes subservient to him, and it was this which caused Gregory XII to decide to return to Rome.

The French king objected so strenuously to the pope's departure that he persuaded some of the cardinals to declare it illegal. The city was bought by them from France, and then they built the huge palace, which still stands. During the exile of the popes from Rome the college of cardinals became almost completely French, and all the popes were Frenchmen. The King of France was continually endeavoring to make the popes subservient to him, and it was this which caused Gregory XII to decide to return to Rome.

The French king objected so strenuously to the pope's departure that he persuaded some of the cardinals to declare it illegal. The city was bought by them from France, and then they built the huge palace, which still stands. During the exile of the popes from Rome the college of cardinals became almost completely French, and all the popes were Frenchmen. The King of France was continually endeavoring to make the popes subservient to him, and it was this which caused Gregory XII to decide to return to Rome.

The French king objected so strenuously to the pope's departure that he persuaded some of the cardinals to declare it illegal. The city was bought by them from France, and then they built the huge palace, which still stands. During the exile of the popes from Rome the college of cardinals became almost completely French, and all the popes were Frenchmen. The King of France was continually endeavoring to make the popes subservient to him, and it was this which caused Gregory XII to decide to return to Rome.

The French king objected so strenuously to the pope's departure that he persuaded some of the cardinals to declare it illegal. The city was bought by them from France, and then they built the huge palace, which still stands. During the exile of the popes from Rome the college of cardinals became almost completely French, and all the popes were Frenchmen. The King of France was continually endeavoring to make the popes subservient to him, and it was this which caused Gregory XII to decide to return to Rome.

Today It Is a Museum.

The Riviera passers Avignon close enough to enable the passengers to look out the windows and see the towers and turrets of the palace of the popes.

They also get a glimpse of the tower of the cathedral. This is a Romanesque building, mainly of the twelfth century, and its most prominent feature is a statue of the Virgin in gold. Among the most beautiful works of art in the interior is the manuscript of Pope John XXII, a masterpiece of Gothic carving of the fourteenth century. Avignon, to-day, is the seat of an archbishop.

They also get a glimpse of the tower of the cathedral. This is a Romanesque building, mainly of the twelfth century, and its most prominent feature is a statue of the Virgin in gold. Among the most beautiful works of art in the interior is the manuscript of Pope John XXII, a masterpiece of Gothic carving of the fourteenth century. Avignon, to-day, is the seat of an archbishop.

They also get a glimpse of the tower of the cathedral. This is a Romanesque building, mainly

MAKES DEATH MASK OF WILSON.

Dr. V. Fortunato and assistant.

The exact likeness of Woodrow Wilson will live for all time in a death mask, the cast of which was taken by Dr. Vindemar Fortunato, medical sculptor of Johns Hopkins University, and a woman assistant. The mask will remain the property of Mrs. Wilson, but will be available for sculptors and art students. Dr. Fortunato is shown with the cast under his arm as he left the S street home of Mr. Wilson in Washington.

An Added Burden. A new burden has been added to the life of house mistresses by the suggestion that servants ought to be provided with uniforms to match the color effects of the rooms in which they happen to be working.

Where Pearls Are Plentiful. In the vicinity of the Pearl Islands, in the Bay of Panama, pearls are so plentiful that when the islands were first discovered the natives were using them as decorations for their canoes.

The Funeral Benefit Association Council No. 1.

Will meet at the lodge room Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is expected.

E. H. FARISH, President.
H. M. PRIEST, Secretary.

PRINCESS—Today and Thursday

A Picture That Will Echo In Your Heart Like a Magic Melody

Edwin Carewe presents

MIGHTY LAKA ROSE

In the dark streets of the city a girl played on a violin, and strong men wept and women stepped from the shadows—and one man found something he had not known before. And for her he made the great sacrifice—and when he came back again there was only a dog to greet him! Could she understand? Could she forgive?

There is tenderness and beauty—and something else in this picture that will enchant you. Love and Sacrifice and yearning; laughter and tears mingled in a great rhapsody of the city streets.

A symphony of life in the high and low places.
Rieve's Princess
Orchestra Special Music Program

SOCIETY.

Margaret C. Shelton—Phone Decatur 362.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

WEDNESDAY

Married Ladies Bridge Club. Mrs. W. K. McNeill.
Cotaco Literary Club. Mrs. Thomas Hodson.
Berean Club. "Education Day." Mrs. L. P. Troup, hostess.

THURSDAY

Thursday Club. Mrs. H. Carpenter.
Thursday Bridge Club. Mrs. Lester Sheffield.
Musical under the auspices of the Westminster Presbyterian Ladies Aid. 8 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Cortner.
Bridge Party complimenting Mrs. R. C. Workman, of Columbia, S. C. and Mrs. Wallace Carson, of Atlanta, Ga., 2:30 p. m. Lyons hotel with Mrs. Frank Lide and Mrs. George Wallace, hostesses.
H. B. Luncheon Club 12:30 p. m. Mrs. H. T. Gill.
U. D. C. 3 p. m. Mrs. Louis Hobart.

FRIDAY

Canal Street Rook Club. Mrs. Ellen Ballas.
Friday Thirteen. Mrs. D. G. Perkins.
Silk Stocking Club. Mrs. M. B. Lipscomb.
W. C. T. U. 3 p. m. Y. M. C. A.
Albany P. T. A. 3 p. m. School building.

SATURDAY

Saturday Club. 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Morris Ford.

PLAY TO BE GIVEN IN TRINITY.

The ladies of the Trinity Missionary society held their regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon.

They are practicing this week a play, "How the Stormy Grew" which will be given at the schoolhouse on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

The proceeds will be used by the society for a worthy cause. The cast of characters include the following: Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Frank Emens; Mrs. Green, Mrs. Charles Emens; Mrs. Bean, Mrs. B. C. Herndon, Mrs. Rice, Miss Mabel Bass; Mrs. Doolittle, Mrs. W. A. Emens, Mrs. Snow, Mrs. G. F. Bucheit, Mrs. Taylor, Miss Emma Sue Morris, Mrs. White, Mrs. J. C. Gamble.

Y. P. M. S. OF CENTRAL METHODIST INSTALL OFFICERS.

The Young People's Missionary Society of the Central M. E. Church met with Miss Imogene Winton on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Reams, the superintendent, installed the following officers: president, Miss Imogene Winton; vice president, Miss Julia Lovin; corresponding secretary, Miss Aileen Draper; recording secretary, Miss Ruth Chunn; treasurer, Mrs. Rufus Warren; superintendent of supplies, Miss Corrine Long; superintendent of social work, Miss Helen Brooks.

A very interesting program was carried out after which a social hour was enjoyed when the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. H. Winton and Miss Evelyn Davidson.

Rev. J. D. Hunter was a guest of the society.

PHILOKALEAN LITERARY

The Philokalean Literary society met in the Albany school in regular order with the retiring president, Fred Bloodworth in the chair.

The purpose of the meeting was to elect officers for the second semester with the following results, president, Miss Elsie Johnson; vice president, Miss Ernestine Kingsolving; secretary, Miss Mary Louise Chenault; treasurer, Miss Ruth Chunn; reporter, Miss Mattie Masterson, critic Miss Martha Chenault.

The meeting was then adjourned.

MISSION MEETING.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Austinville was entertained by Mrs. Wade and the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. W. B. Robertson.

A number of business was transacted and after the business session a program "Echoes from Foreign Fields" was given. Letters were read from missionaries in China and Mexico.

Mrs. Wade was elected delegate to the conference, to be held in Birmingham February 19th to 21st.

TUESDAY CLUB.

The Tuesday Club was delightfully entertained this week by Mrs. William Voorhies at her home on Canal street.

The club prize was awarded to Mrs. W. N. Cowden and the only guest, Mrs. C. C. Cox was presented a memento.

A dainty salad course was served after the birdie game.

Mrs. Annie Laurie Lane, who was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. W. Laymon last Tuesday, returned to Norwood Hospital in Birmingham, on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Lane is in training at this hospital, to be a nurse.

Mrs. P. H. Sandlin left today for Birmingham, where she will remain for medical treatment by Dr. Livingston.

Mrs. Leroy McEntire and little son, Leroy, Jr., left this morning for Nashville, Tenn., where they will be the guests of her sister, Mrs. T. H. Alexander.

ART DISPLAY AT CLUB MEETING.

The members of the Progressive Culture Club met in the Carnegie Library in Decatur on Tuesday and gathered around one of the large reading tables which was filled with an exhibit of rare chinias and potteries. The different ladies had brought pieces from their own collections for display and all were exquisite.

Mrs. S. A. Lynn read a splendid paper on "Different Kinds of Foreign Chinias" and Mrs. J. W. Cunningham entertained her hearers with an account of the "Rookwood Potteries."

This was an exceptionally interesting meeting as well as instructive.

Mrs. C. M. Lang, of Tallahassee, Fla., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. Z. Waites.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. T. M. Jones, Jr. was a card club hostess of Tuesday afternoon entertaining the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club at her home on West Vine street. Mrs. R. C. Workman, of Columbia, S. C. and Mrs. Steinhart, of Greenville, Ala., were her guests also.

At the club game, bridge, Mrs. H. R. Davis was the lucky contestant and Mrs. Steinhart received the guest souvenir.

A salad, sandwiches and coffee were served.

TUESDAY NIGHT CLUB.

The lovely home of Mrs. Clyde Hendrix was exceptionally so on Tuesday evening, when she entertained the Tuesday Night club. The living room was a bower of pretty hyacinths and the dining table was centered with a bowl of specimen jonquils, our heralds of spring.

Her guests, besides club members were Mesdames, Vera Austelle, Ellwood Hewlett, and W. H. Montgomery, Mr. J. C. White and Judge W. T. Lowe.

Rook was the diversion of the evening hours and at a late hour an ice course was served carrying out the valentine motif.

Mrs. F. S. Hunt and daughter, Clara Berry, were in Birmingham last week to attend the Paderewski concert.

FERRY STREET ROOK CLUB.

Mrs. Clyde Hendrix will be hostess at the meeting of the Ferry Street Rook Club on Friday afternoon.

Butter Shipped to Georgia From Here

Georgia, said to be the leading dairy state of the south, was lately invaded by Alabama dairying interests when on Tuesday the Decatur Ice Cream and Creamery company shipped 3,000 pounds of butter to the southern part of the Cracker state.

PERSONALS

T. E. Pride has returned from a few days business trip to Birmingham.

J. T. Bryant and C. T. Higgsbee, have returned from a short stay in Huntsville.

T. W. Wert is in Huntsville today.

Frederick Hunt is ill at his home on Canal street.

Billy Wyker is confined to his home with an attack of measles.

Robert McAdams, of the Nashville firm of Merty-McAdams is in the Twin Cities, and stopping at the Lyons hotel. Mr. McAdams has a number of warm friends here. He is a native of Columbia, Tenn.

T. E. Williams, J. P. Matlock, T. M. Dix, J. D. Sharp and other prominent local Baptists are in Memphis attending the convention of Southern Baptist laymen.

Judge N. P. Thomas of Tusculum was here today.

Dr. H. D. Greer was called to Sylacauga, Ala., on Tuesday night by the serious illness of his father.

P. H. Sandlin, Jr., is spending this week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Widner.

G. D. Williamson returned home last night from a several weeks visit in Florida.

Builds Several Homes. The red squirrels build their nests of dead leaves and shavings of hemlock and cedar bark, lining them with almost any soft material which they can find, says Nature Magazine. They are not always satisfied to have one home, but frequently have two or three.

Go to Hardage's First.—Advt.

They Battle Bugs. The warblers are one of the most useful families of birds—they eat so many noxious insects, says Nature Magazine. They nest in orchards, shade trees, willows, shrubbery and spruce forests. The yellow-throated warbler tenants orchards and shrubbery near standing or running water. A caterpillar is its favorite tidbit.

Meaning of "Equinox." The term equinox means literally "equal night." There are two equinoxes, the vernal and the autumnal, in each year. When they occur the sun passes north or south, over the equator, and the length of night and day is equal over the entire world. The equinoxes occur about the 21st of March and the 21st of September.

Hog Cholera Serum. By experiments on 17 hogs a hog cholera serum was discovered through the use of which it is estimated that the equivalent of 1,000,000 hogs a year has been saved to farmers of this country.

Prescriptions First

We believe that service consists in using only the very best of ingredients in your prescriptions, calling for them when necessary, and delivering the filled prescriptions to you in the least possible time. If that is your idea of service, too, let us fill your next prescription.

Albany Drug Co.

Corner Moulton Street and Second Avenue
PHONE ALBANY, 149

GRAND OPERA

CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE

February 22nd and 23rd. Reduced Fares

via

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM

Tickets on sale February 21, 22 and 23. Good for return until February 25

For detailed information apply to Ticket Agent

J. L. MEEK, A. G. P. A. W. C. SPENCER, D. P. A.
Chattanooga, Tenn. Chattanooga, Tenn.

On February 14, 15 and 16

MR. PHIL POINTER

Representing the Storrs-Schafer Co., of Cincinnati, will display a full line of SPRING WOOLENS at our house

WE WILL APPRECIATE A CALL

W. M. BAILEY

"THINGS FOR MEN AND LITTLE MEN"

From You to Her With Love
---CANDY

It's a most happy surprise—that box of tempting, delicious Candy on St. Valentine's Day—from our store. It's the one gift on this notable occasion that meets with response from every recipient.

YOU MARRIED MEN TOO

Make your wife's heart glad with memories of those "sweetheart days," with a box of delicious Whitman's Candy. We have just the box that will please her.

Decatur Drug Co.

CORNER BANK AND VINE

PHONES 94

PHONES 95

Masonic Feb. 14th

"Miss Cherry Blossom"

Students of Albany High School under the auspices of Albany Parent-Teacher Association

50—PEOPLE IN THE CAST—50

GEISHA CHORUS—AMERICAN CHORUS

SINGING DANCING UNIQUE COSTUMES

Two Hours of Mirth and Melody

Admission 50c

Seats reserved Princess Box Office February 13-14

Curtain 8:15

Classified Ads and Business Directory

FOR EXCHANGE—Personal property to the value of your equity in real estate in Albany and Decatur. Also have lots to exchange for a home. J. A. Thornhill, 209 Johnston street.

FOR SALE—Several homes in west South and Central Albany at reasonable prices and terms can be made.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE OR RENT—A money making proposition. Furniture and fixtures, in a 14 room, best equipped, best located boarding house in Albany. Prefer to sell but will rent to responsible party. We keep 15 to 20 boarders and one 3 room apartment rented at $35 per month. My price is right. This must go. You can lease house but under no obligation to do so. Phone Albany 716 or come to 1104 4th avenue south. 13-3t.

FOR SALE—Chevrolet coupe, 1923 model. Carefully used less than nine months. Price $400. Write "X" care this office. 7-tf.

FOR SALE—Attractive new bungalow on Grant street. Excellent neighborhood. Terms if desired. Will build on adjoining lot to suit purchaser. Frank P. Lide. 11-3t.

FOR SALE—Old papers at five cents per bundle. Call at the Daily Office. 15-tf.

FOR SALE OR RENT—The Olshine building in Decatur, Ala. For information write John R. Witt, "Woodside Stock Farm," Belle Mina, Ala. 3-tf.

FOR SALE—40 head of good horses, mules, and mares. Home raised, home broke, no shipping cough and a home guarantee on each animal as represented. Write John R. Witt, "Woodside Stock Farm," Belle Mina, Ala. 3-tf.

FOR SALE—Old papers. Call at Daily Office. Five cents per bundle. 27-tf.

FOR SALE—Stable fertilizer. $1.50 per load delivered. Call Twin City Transfer Co. 12-tf.

LOST OR FOUND

LOST—Ladies black patent leather hand bag, containing receipts, gold heads, small pen knife, place card with name of owner written on it. Finder please return to Mrs. H. T. Gill or phone Albany 327. Reward. 13-3t.

TAKEN UP—Yellow jersey cow. Owner can have by identifying and paying cost of advertisement and upkeep. J. C. Cowart. Wilder place. 12-3t.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Four room house, with bath. 1114 5th avenue South, Albany. Phone Decatur 310. P. O. Box Decatur 436. 13-3t.

FOR RENT—Two or three room apartment. Suitable for couple for light housekeeping. Call Albany 249-W. 13-3t.

FOR RENT—Two or three nice furnished rooms in good location. All conveniences. Terms, reasonable. Mrs. A. H. Irons, 301 West Church street. Phone 38-W. 12-3t.

FOR RENT—14 acres land and 5 room house. Call 2604 Albany. One mile out. 12-6t.

OFFICES—Bedrooms for rent. In the Albany office building. One splendid office suite, 2nd floor, 6 magnificent office rooms or bed rooms on 3rd floor. Only high class people need apply. F. Y. Petty. 23-tf.

WANTED

IF YOU WANT to store your furniture. Call Schimmel and Hunter. Albany 47. 4-12t.

WANTED—Regular boarders at the Albany Cafe. Fifteen newly furnished rooms in connection. Special rates to regular boarders. The Albany Cafe, 210 East Moulton street. J. G. Allison, proprietor. 9-6t.

MISCELLANEOUS

ANNOUNCEMENT—Open February first, The Albany Cafe, at 210 East Moulton street, with newly furnished rooms in connection. At very reasonable prices. J. G. Allison, proprietor. 11-6t.

WRITE US your piano wants. We can save you from $100 to $200 on a purchase. Kimball and Gulbransen. Uprights $317. Players $462. We also sell the New Edison phonograph and records. Easy terms. Mason's music department. Huntsville Ala. 12-6t.

COURTESY, efficiency and appreciation are found in two places, first in the dictionary, second in W. C. Self's Barber shop, east side gate, 8th street and 4th avenue South. Albany, Ala. 12-3t.

FORD, FORD, FORD—Is coming. We are already here. With the best line of groceries, fresh meats, lard, sugar, coffee and everything kept in a first class store. Others come, others go. We stay and treat you right you know. Don't forget the place, 515 West Market street, Decatur, Ala. You don't have to carry your goods 2 or 3 blocks, just step to the phone and call 143. Decatur and see how soon your goods will be at your door. Quick sales and small profits is our motto. So follow the crowd and be convinced that we are the place to buy your goods. Thanking our many friends for their past favors and hoping a continuance of your future business, we remain yours truly Newsom Supply Store. T. J. Newsom, Manager. 7-6t.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY—Do you want to make money? If you want to go into the automobile business we have an exceptional proposition to offer. Investigate and be convinced. Malone Motor Company. 29-18t.

Hemstitching, 8c per yard, stamping and picoting, very special, all colors, dress linen, 79c to 89c yard. Ready to wear and millinery. The Gray Shopp. Echols Hotel Building. Decatur, Ala. 9-6t.

CHIROPRACTIC
The Drugless Way to Health
A. ABERCROMBIE
Phonics: Office 183 Residence 324-J
4, 5, 6 Eyster Bldg. (1st Floor)
(Successor to M. B. Wooten)

FURNITURE
New and Secondhand
DINSMORE BROS.
219 E. Moulton Phone 297

Hemstitching and Picoting
Stamping Patterns and Art Needle Work
Buttons Made to Order
MRS. J. B. MOYER
206 GRANT STREET

ONE FOUR O READY TO GO
LIDE'S
Instant Service

ABEL BROS. PLUMBING & HEATING CO.
Estimates Furnished
1323 4th Ave. Phone 63

REMEMBER
If you need Dry Goods, Shoes, Etc., walk a block and save a dollar.

LIGON'S
Just in front of Post Office
Albany, Ala.

W. R. Lewis & Son
Flint, Ala.
GENERAL MERCHANDISE
AUTO TIRES AND ACCESSORIES
Cheap for Cash

Ballroom and Classical Dancing taught by
MISS HILDA POLYTINSKY
Class lessons in Ballroom Dancing every Friday evening
TELEPHONE DECATUR 243

Come In

and see us the next time you are in need of good printing. We are specialists in the kind of work that pleases.

A trial is all we ask.

If good work is what you want, cleanliness appeals to you, service any inducement, MOYE'S SHOP is here to serve you. It's the only 100 per cent shop in Alabama. Separate room for ladies.

W. R. CARMACK
Successor to H. Mullen
Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating. Estimates Furnished
222 Grant St. Phone 64 Albany

Moulton News

Through the efforts of M. B. Mackey, manager of the Lawrence County Farm Bureau, the dairying business seems to have begun in and around Moulton in more than a modest way. Fourteen miles from the nearest railroad point and twenty-four miles from Decatur, the nearest creamery has made farmers think they could do nothing in dairying, twelve families who have been supplying hitherto the butter for Moulton have entered into the business. H. L. Delashaw and J. C. Smith, out of town two or three miles north, seem at present to be the largest deliverers of cream the first named having brought in at one time thirty three pounds. The Moulton Drug company has kindly consented to handle the matter without cost to the producers until a firmer basis can be established. Inasmuch as the undertaking is new a misunderstanding existed as to the percentage of butter fat most desired and the cream has been delivered with from 18 to 47 per cent. The market price at present is 48 cents the pound for butter fat, while the actual cost for delivery to the Decatur creamery was only two cents the pound.

The hundreds of friends of E. Anderson McBride, head of the consolidated school in Moulton, Talladega county, are happy to hear of his marriage Saturday, February 9, 1924 to Miss Ruby Lillian Kilgore, of Jasper. Mr. McBride is remembered in the county as assistant county superintendent of education for two or three years under both the present superintendent of education and his predecessor, and also one of the best teachers in the county. He especially built up for himself a reputation as an aggressive and enthusiastic rural community worker.

Recent action in Lawrence county indicates more than a mere enthusiasm for better road conditions, since the numerous car owners are demanding hard surface roads, the most recent project to be planned is to build the Wren road leading south from Moulton about three or four miles to the foot of the mountains on the edge of the Alabama Forest Reservation. Through R. M. Lufburrow, chief of the Forestry department with headquarters in Moulton, an officer has been made in the past few weeks to the citizens along the road named for the government to grade the road, crush the rock and roll it if the farmers would put the material in place. At present the two miles south of Moulton, through one of the most fertile and prosperous sections of the county is almost impassable. A movement is now on foot in Moulton to macadamize the street running south from the public square by the county high school building to meet the road, subscriptions are to be matched by the town authorities.

Miss Mary D. Pierce of the state department of education spent the latter part of the past week in the Lawrence county schools with Miss Lydia Tidwell county supervisor, she was in Moulton Friday night and left for Decatur Saturday morning; her main purpose was to determine as far as possible the worth of supervision in the rural county and to note improvements if any since her visit of four years ago. She expressed herself as being pleased with the visit and as being able to see not only improvements in the care of school rooms and grounds but a decided improvement in the reading ability of the lower grade children. Reading has been stressed for the past four years in the lower grades of the county.

Under the direction of C. N. Preuit, member of the Lawrence County board of revenue for the northwest district the Harris Bridge in the extreme west part of the county, over the Town Creek, is nearing completion and can

Sure Relief FOR INDIGESTION

BELL-ANE
6 BELL-ANE Hot Water Sure Relief
25c and 75c Packages Everywhere

now be used by horses and bullocks, the bridge has been in dangerous condition for a number of years and a source of dissatisfaction to the citizens of the community, the middle spans are of steel while the long approaches are of wood.

Miss Lydia Tidwell, supervisor of elementary schools in Lawrence county, is asking the teachers to proclaim Friday, February 22, as visitors' day in all the schools of the county, books as prizes will be given the schools having the greatest number of visitors. Plans are also being perfected for school fair and field days early in March. According to the custom of the past two days will be devoted to the exercises on in the upper valley and one in the lower valley, the plan is to have all school work in the hands of the supervisor before the day for exhibits.

Measles and whooping cough epidemics with the always accompanying scare are hurting the attendance at several of the rural county schools, the attendance thus far for the term has been unusually good and school authorities regret the break that occurs in the good record for the year.

Principal Preuit Simms of Courtland was in Moulton on business Saturday.

B. M. Lufburrow is in Virginia attending a meeting of forestry directors.

Miss Cilla Burgess who has been very ill for some time is reported as being slightly improved.

A. J. Rylant of south Moulton has been quite ill with tonsillitis the past week but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moles were visitors at Decatur Saturday.

Mrs. Laxy Rylant, King of Haleyville spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rylant.

Mrs. F. D. Gibson who has been visiting for several weeks with her sister near Chattanooga returned on Saturday.

F. D. Gibson, town clerk, has been confined to his bed for the past week with measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Aston from near Courtland where Mrs. Aston is teaching at Harmony school, spent the weekend at home.

Judge J. E. Kumpke, of Knoxville, spent the weekend with his family in Moulton.

Silas Black of the forestry work was in Moulton Sunday. He reports work will soon begin on the watch tower near Templeton.

Miss Gladys Burch who has been home for two weeks on account of illness returned to her studies at David Lipscomb College, Nashville, Monday.

Milton Little of the Prairie school district north of Landersville was in Moulton on business Friday.

C. C. Burch was in Decatur on business Monday.

PORTUGAL CUTS EXPENSES

LISBON—Under the leadership of Alvaro de Castro, the government is continuing its policy of reducing expenditure. It has already abolished 614 posts.

Gales Destroy Sika Selected
By Bernhardt for His Grave

PARIS—Sarah Bernhardt, desired her remains to be taken to her summer home on an island off the Brittany coast for burial in a rock that she had chosen for her tomb.

It is fortunate that the actress's intention was not carried out, for the recent tidal wave and storm which devastated the French coast tore the rocks which she had selected from their place, and scattered them along the sea shore.

SORE THROAT
Gargle with warm salt water—then apply over throat—
VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

WHOOING COUGH
Hard on child—hard on parents. Control dreadful whooping and coughing, help to quiet sleep with
CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY
Every user is a friend

DON'T WAIT--COME TODAY

The Allotment of Cabinets for This Sale Is Going Fast

HOOSIER

ONLY

45¢

CASH
Balance Small Weekly Payments

Many women have been made happy through this unusual offer, and now are enjoying the economies and labor-saving qualities of the celebrated Hoosier in their homes. You can do the same if you don't delay. We will deliver a Hoosier to your home on a cash payment of 45 cents, and make terms on the balance to suit you. Don't pass this chance. Never before and perhaps never again will we be able to offer you such an opportunity. Over 500 Morgan County housewives are now enjoying the Hoosier. You, too, can have one placed in your home and at the end of 10 days if you are not entirely satisfied we will gladly refund all the money you have paid and come and get your Hoosier.

FREE

24 Pieces of Fine Kitchenware

This 10-piece set of Dexter Domestic Science Cutlery—the knives, forks and spatulas which have received the highest endorsement from domestic science experts. Many stores sell this set as high as $7.50.

This 14-piece set of Crystal Glassware is also included with the HOOSIER BEAUTY as regular equipment, making 24 pieces in all, during this big sale.

FREE

The following list of Groceries

- 1 lb. can Maxwell House Coffee
- 1 box Crystal Salt
- 1 can Stokley Tomatoes
- 1 box Arm and Hammer Soda
- 1 can Stokley Hominy
- 1 pkg. Quaker Oats
- 1 can Up-to-Date Baking Powder
- 1 pk. Domino Rice
- 1 pk. Tetley's Tea
- 1 box Peters Black Pepper
- 1 bottle Tryme Vanilla Extract
- 1 can Merry War Lye
- 1 bar Borax Soap
- 1 24-lb. bag Dictator Flour

Remember:—We are exclusive agents for Morgan County and have all the latest models—all have a number of improvements. Come quick before they are gone.

EXCLUSIVE AGENTS
MORGAN COUNTY

Morgan Furniture Co.

EXCLUSIVE AGENTS
MORGAN COUNTY

SHATTERED NERVES

Lady Says She Was In a Desperate Condition, But "Now In Splendid Health" After Taking Cardui.

Cardui, Ind.—About three years ago, says Mrs. Flora Roberts, of this city, "I had the flu, which left me in a desperate condition. I had a bad cold, I went down in weight to little more than one hundred pounds. I took different medicines—did everything, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I felt so badly in the chest at times I would have to go to the door to get my breath.

"I would have the headache and... was so weak I felt like I would just have to sink down and stay there.

"My nerves were shattered. I looked for something awful to happen—I would tremble and shake at a noise.

"My mother said, 'Do try Cardui,' and my husband insisted till I began its use. I used two bottles of Cardui and noted a big improvement in my condition. I kept up the Cardui and weigh 180 pounds. I am now in splendid health—sure am a firm believer in Cardui, for I'm satisfied it did the work."

After a weakening illness a tonic is needed to help regain lost strength. Many thousands of women have found Cardui exactly what they needed for this purpose. It may be just what you need. Try it. All druggists.

Legion Minstrel Cast Rehearsing

Talent is being rehearsed day and night in the ballroom of the Lyons hotel for the American Legion minstrel to be given at the Princess theater, February 13. The feature of the show is the dancing chorus, which is composed of 35 of the prettiest and most popular girls of Albany and Decatur. The show is in three acts. Act one is the old-time minstrel, first part with 20 local men as blackface comedians and whiteface soloists.

Acts two and three go into a musical comedy with the dancing girls and comedians. The Powell-Spain Producing company, directing the show here for the Legion furnish all special costumes and scenery for the entire production and also furnish two professional men to work throughout the show.

Tickets are already on sale.

NEW LEAGUE FORMED

Gordon McDuff has received word that Anniston, Gadsden, Talladega, Rome, Carrollton and Dalton have formed a baseball league, to be known as the Georgia-Alabama League.

Somerville News

Mr. and Mrs. Skegg Johnston were in Hartselle Friday shopping.

P. L. Guyer of Albany visited home folks here Friday.

Mrs. Randolph Ryan and daughter, Florence Weaver, were guests Saturday of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Peck.

O. W. Bailey and children of Hartselle were here Saturday.

Little Estelle Russell, of Albany, spent Saturday with Herminie and Hilda Gilchrist.

Mrs. C. B. Gilchrist and children spent the weekend with relatives in Albany.

Lois and Reba Tapscott of Hartselle spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Walter Eady near Union.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bradford of route one were here Saturday on business.

O. W. Bailey and family of Hartselle were guests Saturday and Sunday of his cousin, Mrs. Walter Eady and family.

Willis Winton and Vardy Gilchrist were here Saturday night.

Lloyd Cain, was in Hartselle Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Flemon Smith, visited his aunt, Mrs. Mollie Hood Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lora Day were here Saturday night visiting Mrs. Mollie Hood.

Mrs. Ada Herron returned home Sunday from Albany after spending several weeks there with her brothers family, Mrs. Robert Winton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Abbott of Albany were here Sunday visiting relatives.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cooley on February 7, a son.

Joe Winton and family were guests Sunday of his brother Robert Winton and family in Albany.

Mrs. T. J. Russell wife of Dr. Russell who has been critically ill for several months was carried to Birmingham Monday for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hood and daughter, Kathleen, and Francis Winton of Hartselle were guests of his mother, Mrs. Mollie Hood.

Miss Stella Humphries of Gum Springs who has been sick with pneumonia died Sunday.

The Gape Disease.
Recent investigation indicates that chickens contract the gape disease by eating earthworms infested with the larvae of the gape worm, a parasite named.

WORK HALTED ON KING TUT'S TOMB

(Associated Press)
LUXOR, Egypt, Feb. 13.—Owing to what he characterizes as the discourtesies of the Egyptian public works department, Howard Carter, head of the excavation work, closed Tut's tomb.

It is understood the crisis was precipitated by the refusal of the Egyptian government to permit the wives of the excavators to visit the tomb this morning.

The following notice was posted in the hall of the Winter Palace hotel this afternoon.

"Owing to the impossible restriction and discourtesies on the part of the public works department and its antiquities department, all by collaborators, in protest, have refused to work any further upon scientific investigation of the discovery of the tomb of Tutankhamen. I am, therefore, obliged to make known to the public that immediately after the preview of the tomb, between 10 o'clock and noon, the tomb will be closed and no further work carried out. Howard Carter."

Albany, Ga., Bank Fails to Open Doors

(Associated Press)
ALBANY, Ga., Feb. 13.—The Citizens First National bank of Albany failed to open its doors for business this morning. The decision was taken at a conference held last night by officers and directors. The cause of the bank's difficulties was said by officers of the institution was said to have been over extension of credit and a recent severe shrinkage of deposits. Officials expressed the opinion the depositors would be paid in full, but that it would take some time.

McDonald's Cabinet Not to Be Hampered

(Associated Press)
LONDON, Feb. 13.—Former prime Minister Stanley Baldwin indicated today that the conservative opposition was unlikely to take any action that would hamper the McDonald cabinet in negotiating with France.

Frances Willard Memorial Service

Beginning at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening in the Decatur Baptist church, under the auspices of the local Woman's Christian Temperance Union, a mass meeting will be held in memory of Frances E. Willard, the first general secretary of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, who died 27 years ago Sunday and in recognition of the 50th year, since the founding of the national W. C. T. U.

Mrs. C. W. Black, formerly president of the local W. C. T. U. and an active worker in that organization is expected to preside at the meeting.

Rev. S. D. Monroe, pastor of the First Baptist church of Albany who knew Miss Frances E. Willard, will make the principal address.

The devotional exercises will be conducted by Dr. Charles C. Davison pastor of the Decatur Baptist church. A special musical program is being arranged and one or more appropriate readings will be given by local elocutionists.

Improvements Are Made at Hartselle

Paving of the streets and sidewalks of Hartselle and the setting of the gutters for the streets is claiming the attention of the people of that town, said Captain R. A. Burleson, who was here today.

"Everybody seems to be at work in the Hartselle section," stated Captain Burleson, "those not working on the paving programs are busy preparing to farm."

Austinville Will Reopen Schools

The Austinville public schools will open on Monday following a month of inactivity on account of an epidemic of whooping cough and measles in the neighborhood.

RECOGNITION GIVEN

(Associated Press)
MOSCOW, Feb. 13.—Norway has given the Russian soviet government recognition de jure, the foreign office was informed today in a telegram from Alexandria Kollantay, Soviet representative in Norway.

Why Lemon?
By carefully arranging utensils and supplies to eliminate extra steps and motions, experiments at the University of Washington have demonstrated that a housewife can cut nearly 11 minutes from the time or nearly taken to make a lemon pie.

Vanderlip Asked to Explain Reference

(Continued From Page One)

oil disclosures, led Senator McKellar, democrat, of Tennessee, to make a renewed demand in the senate for immediate court action. Mr. McKellar said Mr. Coolidge's promise of prosecution would be approved by everyone, and then added:

"Everybody knows that Donhey and Sinclair bribed Fall and that Fall accepted the bribe and yet no indictment has been found against any of the three. Why the delay? The district attorney should move at once. Everyone knows there is ample ground for indictment."

Perjury Charged to Ex-White Sox

(Associated Press)

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 13.—Oscar "Happy" Feltch, former White Sox ball player, who testified late yesterday at the trial of Joe Jackson's suit for $18,500 against Chicago club of the American league, was arrested at the opening of court this morning on a charge of perjury.

Benefit Dinner Largely Attended

The Ladies Guild of St. John's Episcopal church gave a benefit dinner at the Parish house Tuesday evening which was largely attended and a generous sum was realized for use by the Guild in their church work.

Gets Pleasant Surprise

"About 6 months ago my father was very sick with his stomach, which had been troubling him for several years. Three doctors said he had cancer and one said it was gall stones—all agreed an operation necessary, but on account of his age I was afraid to risk it. I told a friend about it who said his wife had been through the same trouble and had been cured by taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I at once bought a bottle for father and he is now as strong as a bear and can get more ham and cabbage than any 3 men." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. By druggists everywhere. Adv.

FIRPO FOUND AMERICANS IGNORANT OF ARGENTINA

BUENOS AIRES.—That Luis Angel Firpo, who was defeated by Jack Dempsey for the world's heavyweight title, has done more than any other man to make Argentina known to the American public, is the opinion of many persons recently returned from the United States. They tell extraordinary stories of the vague ideas the average American citizen still possesses about conditions and customs prevailing in the land of the pretender to the world championship in boxing.

Firpo himself has declared that on several occasions he was asked, while in the United States, if he arrayed himself in feathers when he was at home and if it was true that raw meat was the staple article of diet of Argentina's millions. Questions such as if he had taken part in many battles with Indians, whether bands of bloodthirsty bandits roamed around the city of Buenos Aires, and if travelers herded together for mutual protection when setting forth upon long journeys, were fired at Argentina's boxing champion by enterprising American newspapermen.

men, it is stated, while other travelers decline many Americans are still firmly convinced that after battle, the Argentine invariably cut the throats of their prisoners as not to be burdened with them.

It is considered here that if Firpo were the world title from Jack Dempsey next year, his mighty right paw will have done more towards a better knowledge of Argentina by Americans generally than all the Pan-American conferences and consular or business reports put together.

HILL'S Acts at Once

Stops Colds in 24 Hours
Hill's Cascara Bromide Quinine gives quicker relief than any other cold or influenza remedy. Tablets disintegrate in 10 seconds. Effectiveness proved in millions of cases. Demand red box bearing Mr. Hill's portrait. All druggists—30 cents.

HILL'S CASCARA BROMIDE QUININE
W. H. HILL CO. DETROIT, MICH.

Blue Band VELVET PENCILS
At all Dealers
5¢
Supreme in their class.
As Smooth as Velvet.
Write for trial sample
American Lead Pencil Co., New York
Makers of the famous VELVET Pencil

THIRTY-SECOND ANNUAL STATEMENT

(On call from State Banking Department)

TENNESSEE VALLEY BANK

DECEMBER 31, 1923

RESOURCES	LIABILITIES
Commercial and Call	Capital Stock $ 175,000.00
Loans	Surplus Fund 175,000.00
Commodity Loans	Undivided Profits and Reserves 44,651.33
Demand Loans	Deposits 5,030,466.04
	$1,146,490.12
Loans and Discounts	2,784,037.17
Overdrafts	133.89
Stocks and Bonds	167,373.00
Banking Houses (16)	102,500.00
Furniture and Fixtures (16)	42,500.00
Other Real Estate	12,600.00
Building Account	2,387.57
Cash and due from Banks	1,166,996.82
	$5,425,017.37

DODGE BROTHERS TYPE-B SEDAN

Probably no closed car has ever been received with equal enthusiasm the nation over.

This is unquestionably due to the fact that in spite of its acknowledged beauty, and exceptional riding comfort, the Type-B Sedan is as sturdy as an open car—and costs but little more.

The price is $1,390 delivered

HARRIS MOTORS CO.
BANK STREET, DECATUR

Why suffer from Rheumatism?

There is a certain unexplainable feeling that goes with hale and hearty old age—it is a feeling of helplessness, of care unknown, of rebores youth.

But rheumatism—that deadly malady which has caused so many to surrender to the woes of pain and suffering—caused so many to forego the pleasure of life—caused so many to be dependent. Why suffer from it?

To be dependent about crutches, canes and willing hands always needed to assist you here and help you there. Rheumatism will vanish the same as skin disorders—the same as sallow complexion—the same as that run down condition when S. S. S. is used. S. S. S. builds red blood cells by the score. Your nerve power is strengthened. When rich, red, normal.

S.S.S. The World's Best Blood Medicine.

There is a certain unexplainable feeling that goes with hale and hearty old age—it is a feeling of helplessness, of care unknown, of rebores youth.

But rheumatism—that deadly malady which has caused so many to surrender to the woes of pain and suffering—caused so many to forego the pleasure of life—caused so many to be dependent. Why suffer from it?

To be dependent about crutches, canes and willing hands always needed to assist you here and help you there. Rheumatism will vanish the same as skin disorders—the same as sallow complexion—the same as that run down condition when S. S. S. is used. S. S. S. builds red blood cells by the score. Your nerve power is strengthened. When rich, red, normal.

S.S.S. The World's Best Blood Medicine.

1850 1924

15 438

Per Square Mile

How Population Has Grown in L&amp;N Served Territory~

Population is always the gauge of prosperity. No matter what a state or community's natural resources are, its real wealth is no more than the extent to which its resources are developed. People are needed to till the soil, operate the mines, husband the stock, run the factories, and otherwise carry on the work necessary to the upbuilding of all land.

In 1850, when the L. & N. came into being, seven of the Southern states which it serves to-day (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee) had an average population of 15 people per square mile. To-day, seventy four years later, this population is increased to 438—or nearly three times as many people as in 1850.

Adequate and reliable transportation, largely supplied by the L. & N., has made possible the growth of this territory. People have been brought from elsewhere to join in its development. Conveniently accessible markets have been provided for its products. Intercourse between the states and with the rest of the world, has been made easy of accomplishment.

Important as this has been, the L. & N. has done still more. Through its Immigration and Industrial Department it has invested time and money in exploiting the South to other parts of the country. It has induced many farmers and manufacturers to come in and settle here, thus in addition to its basic service as a carrier—making a definite contribution to the South's growth.

This work the L. & N. will continue to perform, constantly striving to make its service a greater and more helpful factor in the upbuilding of its territory.

L&N
LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE R.R.
THE OLD RELIABLE